

GROWING CLOUD NATIVE TOGETHER

KCD Monthly Organizer Digest

August 5, 2024

Congratulations Zurich, Bologna, Hyderabad, Munich, and Lima!

Congratulations to all teams that hosted KCDs in June and July! KCDs Hyderabad and Lima were inaugural events this year.

We are excited for the next five KCDs happening the rest of June, and in July

- KCD Washington DC on September 24
- KCD Porto September 27-28

IMPORTANT UPDATE

KCD 2.0 is here!

Thanks to those who joined us last Friday for the working group, here is the recording and transcript (can also be found in your LFX account).

I will be reaching out to all KCD 2025 issues in GitHub today, forwarding them to the new application page, and a blog post will be going out tomorrow.

Thank you, and we look forward to seeing your application!

OPPORTUNITY

KubeCon Scholarships for KCDs

In case you did not see my June 26 email, below is the form to make your 1 nomination for KubeCon + CloudNativeCon in Salt Lake City this November!

NOTE: We only have 3 scholarships to give out, so the following criteria will be stringent:

- This is for 2024 planned KCDs only, who did not apply for a previous KubeCon + CloudNativeCon.
- Your KCD must at least have a contract with a venue or with a larger conference as a co-located event.
- 1 nominee per KCD per year. The nominee does not have to be an organizer.
- This is a need-based scholarship and will be considered for those who have not yet attended a KubeCon in the past.

All nominations are due on September 1, 2024 by 11:59pm Pacific Time:

As always, thank you for helping make cloud native ubiquitous. Well wishes to you and yours, wherever you are in the world.
